

SATI SECOND TRIENNIAL CONFERENCE

The South African Translators' Institute has pleasure in announcing that registration is now open for its Second Triennial Conference. The conference will once again coincide with International Translation Day.

As the world changes, so does the work of translators and interpreters. These changes present us with both new challenges and new opportunities.

The conference will include the awarding of the SATI Prizes for Outstanding Translation and Dictionaries for 2015.

Chris Durban

well-known translator, blogger, writer and presenter, is the keynote speaker at the conference and will without doubt inspire delegates with her insights and enthusiasm!

Naomi Morgan

will be the guest speaker at the awards ceremony. In January this year Naomi received the prestigious French Ordre des Arts et des Lettres for her translations between French and Afrikaans.

The theme of the conference is The Changing Face of Translation and Interpreting.
